

PERUBLICAN MEETING AT MILLERS IS HELD BY THE PARTY CANDIDATES

Congressional and State Candidates Expound Doctrines of the Party to Large and Appreciative Audience.

The Republican candidates returned to Tonopah this morning after holding one of the most successful rallies in the city in recent years. Owing to the cold weather it was thought that the attendance would be small, but practically the entire voting population was on hand to hear and cheer the arguments of the speakers. Harry Grier and the Nye County Republican committee arranged the meeting in conjunction with County Chairman L. E. Royce of the Esmeralda county committee. Tonight the party will speak at Goldfield. The Tonopah military band accompanied the party to Miller's and woke the echoes of the mill camp.

Judge T. F. (Barney) Moran made a distinct hit with the mining men when he told of his remarkable fight for a livelihood unaided since he was thrown upon his own resources at the age of 10 years. The fact that he has had six years' experience on the district court bench of Washoe county and has been twice elected to that post by constantly increasing majorities had heavy weight with the people who are seeking a man of experience and tried qualifications. In keeping with the new law which provides that no party designation shall be placed on the ballot for the judicial election, Moran made a non-partisan argument, although he declared that he is and always has been a Republican.

Richard A. McKay made a distinct hit with a witty story and a straight forward statement of his experience and qualifications. His office is also one relating to the judiciary and he avoided partisan politics. He has been a practicing attorney for 15 years, an official court reporter for White Pine county, chief clerk of the state engineer's office and is regarded as eminently qualified for the place. "I believe in protection and have always voted for it," declared Congressman Roberts, and the applause that followed his tariff argument was an ovation. "I would as soon vote to reduce your wages and sink you into the poverty, hunger and degradation of the oppressed and pauperized labor of Japan and other lands as to vote to make you compete with that labor under free trade," he declared amid applause. "You can't do it and live like an American," he added. "Half the exports of Japan's millions of wage slaves come here free to scab on American labor."

"I challenge anyone," he closed, "to show where I ever voted against a labor measure in my six years in Congress. I am here to ask whether I did right or wrong in this."

Tumultuous applause gave the answer and foreshadowed the result. Sam Platt's masterly definition of Americanism as laid down by Roosevelt and Grover Cleveland brought salvos of applause. "We are sacrificing to expediency the traditions of America that were sealed in the blood of our forefathers and we are building a name for national incompetency that must some day be redeemed by the blood of our children. America never faced such an international crisis in the last century and the Republican party never presented so adequate an American to meet it as Charles E. Hughes."

"Who demanded the Pittman seven million acre land grant bill?" asked Platt. "It wipes out the homestead's right of entry. It relinquishes the government's aid for reclamation. It bars out the poor man who has built and will further build up this state. It invites land monopoly and retards development. I am opposed to it, as I am sure it is the beginning of a plan which will result in calamity to Nevada."

The people who came eager to hear the details of this much discussed bill made clear were enlightened as to its effects and they showed unmistakably that they were against the bill and with Platt.

PUBLICATION SUPPRESSED

(By Associated Press.)
BERLIN, Oct. 7.—Die Zukunft, of which Maximilian Harden is the editor, has again been suppressed because of an anti-militarist article, the contributor of which pictured "the horrible side of the war."

ON HAND SALE

The following unclaimed property will be sold at public auction by Wittenberg, W. & T. Co., on Friday, October 13, 1916, at their Warehouse, to cover freight, storage and all other charges, unless redeemed before the aforesaid date, according to the laws of the state of Nevada governing warehousing and storage. The sale to commence at 10 a. m.

Pat. Ahern, 1 sewing machine.
Albrecht, 1 suit case.
A. D. Anderson, 1 trunk.
Mrs. Eva Barney, 2 trunks, 1 roll bed.
Lee Baird, 1 trunk.
C. E. Bowman, 1 roll bed.
Jake Bertha, 1 suit case.
A. H. Butler, 1 box H. H. Goods, 1 sewing machine, 1 table, 1 bed & springs.
E. Debowsky, 1 case adv. matter.
Dr. T. J. Crane, 6 boxes H. H. Goods, three chairs, 1 extension table, 1 bed.
E. Ware, 2 crates chairs, 1 wall case.
L. A. Dick, 1 roll bed & shirt.
Mrs. Decker, 1 trunk.
P. J. Gallagher, 2 bbls sacks.
Mrs. Hendrickson, 1 cradle.
Harold Hansen, 1 box per. effects.
Sam Kansas, 1 keg claret.
L. T. Le Beaume, 1 trunk.
C. Meyer, 1 box effects.
E. C. McCarthy, 1 roll bed.
John Patterson, 1 roll bed.
Mrs. M. M. Potter, 2 boxes H. H. Goods, 1 bbl dishes, 1 sewing machine.
M. D. Quilich, 1 box per. effects.
B. Riley, 1 bbl bed.
H. Schumaker, 1 trunk.
L. C. Soback, 1 box H. H. Goods, 1 Rocker.
Paul Soback, 1 trunk.
Fred Tarbell, 1 trunk, 1 suit case.
Ott, 1 trunk.
W. H. Twining, 4 boxes, 2 bbls, 1 horn.
Whitmore, Mrs. Edna or W. H., 60 pieces furniture and H. H. GOODS including: rockers, chairs, carpets, stoves, china closets, dressers, chiffoniers, sideboard, library, dining and kitchen tables, leather furniture, davenport, etc.
W. H. Winks, four case new reference books.
Desk, furniture, etc., in addition to the above; also many other articles not listed.
Adv. O2-101d

QUIET ON THE SOMME

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS (official), Oct. 7.—A lull continues on the Somme front. The night passed quietly all along the battle line in France.

WE ARE OFTEN ASKED
What is the best Eczema Remedy.
We always recommend

Heritol
ADAPA
TRADE MARK
ECZEMA REMEDY
as the surest and most satisfactory.
Sold only by Miners' Drug Store,
Inc., 50c and $1.00.

Mizpah Hotel
Modern hotel where every reasonable tariff prevails
HOT AND COLD RUNNING
WATER IN EACH ROOM
Rooms with or without private baths, single on ensuite
Commercial Rates

Martin Cafferata Steve Pavlovich
MIZPAH
Headquarters for Southern Nevadans
Strictly Up to Date
in Every Respect
WHEN IN RENO CALL
223 North Virginia St., Reno, Nevada

WILSON'S MEXICAN POLICY DENOUNCED

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—In a prepared speech entitled "The Truth About Mexico," United States Senator Albert B. Fall of New Mexico, at a Republican meeting here last night, denounced President Wilson's policy toward the neighboring republic. He declared that "every American who really knows anything of the true conditions in Mexico knows that Carranza's absolutism, despite Wilson's support, is tottering to a fall."

Senator Fall quoted at length from many of the president's speeches, read numerous newspaper criticisms, and finished by giving a list of "American citizens" who, he said, had been "killed in Mexico by armed Mexicans during the revolutionary period between December 1, 1910, and September 1, 1916." The list included 285 names.

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

"Many Americans," continued Senator Fall, "have been driven to the belief that the president of the United States, while possessing a keen, intellectual understanding of phrasemaking and of the cold meaning of words, while having at his command a most voluminous vocabulary of synonyms, while understanding the art of putting words together in a sentence to convey or to hide a meaning, has not the conception of the sentiment underlying a beautifully termed phrase; and are beginning to believe that the word 'humanity' carried a different meaning to McKinley from that which it bears to Wilson; that the words 'allegiance' and 'patriotism' when falling from his lips are simply beautiful words, placed like 'sparkling gems' in some well turned phrase, but are not driven hot from the heart by the thought of the welfare of the country or of its people."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

WILSON'S MEXICAN POLICY DENOUNCED

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—In a prepared speech entitled "The Truth About Mexico," United States Senator Albert B. Fall of New Mexico, at a Republican meeting here last night, denounced President Wilson's policy toward the neighboring republic. He declared that "every American who really knows anything of the true conditions in Mexico knows that Carranza's absolutism, despite Wilson's support, is tottering to a fall."

Senator Fall quoted at length from many of the president's speeches, read numerous newspaper criticisms, and finished by giving a list of "American citizens" who, he said, had been "killed in Mexico by armed Mexicans during the revolutionary period between December 1, 1910, and September 1, 1916." The list included 285 names.

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Senator Fall declared that every "bank and practically every business institution in Mexico had been looted; the railroads have been destroyed; the rails torn up and burned over fires until useless; all bridges destroyed; American property to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars and foreign property to the extent of many millions more has been destroyed; religion has been crushed out of existence, and those preaching it exiled from their homes, while the sisters of charity have been outraged and murdered, and those left alive compelled to flee. The churches are owned by Mr. Carranza under his decree, and used as barracks and stables by his followers, or those of some other faction."

Political Announcements

SAM PLATT
Announces his Candidacy for
United States Senator

MRS. JENNIE CURIEUX
Announces her candidacy for County Recorder and Auditor
On the
DEMOCRATIC TICKET

ARTHUR H. KEENAN
Announces his Candidacy on the
REPUBLICAN TICKET
for Public Administrator

J. Wesley Stewart
Regular Republican Nominee
for
State Senator

LETSON BALLIET
Announces his Candidacy on the
REPUBLICAN TICKET
for
Sheriff of Nye County

ROBERT G. "Bob" POHL
Announces his candidacy on the Republican ticket
for County Clerk
OF NYE COUNTY

Thomas Lindsay
Announces his candidacy on
the Republican ticket
For Long Term
County Commissioner
OF NYE COUNTY

N. K. (Ben) Franklin
(INCUMBENT)
Regular Republican Nominee for the office of County Treasurer
HE SOLICITS YOUR SUPPORT

JOHN CLENDENING
Announces his Candidacy on
INDEPENDENT TICKET
For Short Term
County Commissioner
OF NYE COUNTY

JOHN BARRIER
Announces his Candidacy on the
DEMOCRATIC TICKET
for
Treasurer of Nye County

P. C. FISLER
Announces his Candidacy on the
DEMOCRATIC TICKET
for
Justice of the Peace
Tonopah Precinct

J. D. (Jack) GRANT
Announces his Candidacy on the
DEMOCRATIC TICKET
For Constable
Of Tonopah Township

W. B. "Bill" EVANS
(Incumbent)
Announces his Candidacy on the
REPUBLICAN TICKET
For Constable
Of Tonopah Township

HORACE CAMPBELL
Announces his Candidacy on the
REPUBLICAN TICKET
For Short Term
County Commissioner
OF NYE COUNTY

G. A. "Big" ROBERTS
Announces his candidacy for
CONSTABLE
AN INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE
Of Tonopah Township

Frank J. Cavanaugh
REPUBLICAN NOMINEE
FOR
Justice of Peace
OF
Tonopah Township

DON'T BUY ANCIENT BREAD SHIPPED IN

I would not buy strange, dry, squeezed bread, when I can buy bread of superior quality in every respect. The Progress and Vienna Bakery bread is rich in flavor and is made of the choicest eastern flour, and is heavier and goes further than any imported bread. We are always ready for any order for pastry of any kind equal to that made in any city. We can serve a large banquet as easy as a small banquet.

Progress and Vienna Bakeries
Phone No. 404. Peter Fabbi, Prop.

THE Mizpah Grill
Specializes in Catering
Choice of Vanda Served
Very Reasonable Charges
HINKEL BROS. : Props.

E. E. BERTRAM
State Agent
STEARN-KNIGHT, SAXON
AND HUMPHREY CARS
AND REPUBLIC TRUCKS
Local Agent
Overland and Maxwell Cars
TONOPAH : NEVADA

YOU WILL BE—
Served Courteously
Be generously helped and enjoy pure food if you go to the Tonopah Grill
TONOPAH : NEVADA

THE Original Package
ENQUEST & CARROLL,
Proprietors
Remodeled—Redecorated
The Bar Stocked with the Very Best—Everybody Treated Well

The Cobweb
STATE BANK BLDG.
We handle the Best Wines,
Liquors and Cigars.
7-Year Old
Lacey Whisky
Returns by wire received on all important sporting events.
PAYCHECKS CASHED
The Cobweb
H. M. CLIFFORD & JOHN
MANION, Props.

SOLE AGENTS FOR
MOSES' BEST FLOUR
LOTHROP-DAVIS CO.

ROUND TRIP FARES
From Tonopah, - - $16.75
From Millers - - $15.75

THE MIZPAH BAR
IS STOCKED